

$55,000 ESTATE WILLED TO CHARITY

Mrs. Annie W. Buckley Provides for Gifts to Hospitals and Homes

SERVANT ALSO REWARDED

Episcopal churches and hospitals are the principal beneficiaries in the will of the late Mrs. Annie W. Buckley, 6658 Lawnton street, Oak Lane, which was admitted to probate today.

Under the terms of the document, which disposes of an estate of $55,000, bequests of $5000 each for the maintenance of free beds are made to the Episcopal and St. Christopher's hospitals, and $2000 is left to the Children's Hospital, Home at Allentown, Pa. The Protestant Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd is left $1000.

Three trust funds are created by the will. One for $1000 is to provide for maintenance of a memorial window in St. Martin's Episcopal Church, Oak Lane.

By a codicil $10,000 is set aside as a trust fund for Nellie Furlong, maid to Mrs. Buckley, at her death the principal to be divided between the Episcopal and St. Christopher's Hospitals for free beds.

After small bequests to relatives, the residue of the estate is left in trust to Anne W. Furlong, a niece. At her death $5000 of the fund will go to the Memorial Home and the balance to other charities.

Other wills probated were those of John Emhart, 2346 North Front street, $6500; Marilda M. Harned, 2818 North Broad street, $4000; Mary E. Sullivan, 1919 South Sixth street, $3400, and Martha H. Pancoast, $20,000.

J. Francis Smull, a dentist, who committed suicide November 23 in his home at 2544 West Lehigh avenue, left an estate estimated at $34,800. In his will the bulk is left to his widow, while a $2500 trust fund is left to his daughter, Ethel F. Smull.

Concerning his mother, Smull had this to say in his will: "To my dear mother, Lydia R. Smull, if living, knowing her to be sufficiently endowed with this world's goods to provide her comforts and with the necessities of life, I bequeath my sincere love, affection and true appreciation of her innumerable sacrifices and kindnesses, and trust she will transmit them to my children."

FAMILIES LEFT BEHIND

Many Philadelphians Separated by Train Signal Mix-Up in New York

Scores of Philadelphians returning from New York over the weekend became separated from their families when a two-section train left the Pennsylvania Station at 8 o'clock last night.

Owing to a misunderstanding of signals one section of the train left the station without warning. Wives, husbands, children and maids were left behind in the crowd and forced to wait several hours for transportation.

A FUTILE EXISTENCE
"Mr. Debe has been defying the law since 1922, but it doesn't seem to get him anywhere. In 'On Second Thought' that if 'we had a system that produced no better results we'd depart.' Read this column daily in the PUBLIC LEDGER. 'Make it a Habit.'—J.W."

STORM WARNINGS

They have been issued for the householders whose coal supply is low. The warning comes, well expressed, from the New York Fuel Administrator.

"But a severe storm will surely catch the householder if he has no Buckwheat coal. Soft coal or Coke and does not conserve his supply by the partial use of these substitutes. His limited supply may run out, and a storm would tie up distribution facilities. These are already taxed to the utmost by the necessity of making smaller deliveries than usual because of the lack of any large reserve supply. It is up to every one to do his own conserving as far as possible."

American stands ready to advise you as to the use of substitutes and will give you the RECIPE for a good fire made with them.

A little saving—a little conservation today—saves lots of suffering when the COLD days come.
